Since Donald Trump's "liberation day", the 2025 economic outlook has taken a dramatic turn.

According to Matt Sherwood, Head of Investment Strategy and Multi Asset at Perpetual, this new reality calls for a shift in perspective – a readiness to adapt and a recognition that yesterday's playbook may no longer suffice.

In his latest report – Concessions, yes...but the fallout is coming – Matt explains:

- The outlook for global growth and recession risks
- Perpetual's changing base case for the US in 2025
- Why investors may need to revisit their diversification strategy
